Product Design

The consultants in our Product Design team include ex-industry professionals with over fifty years of relevant expertise between them. The team's extensive technical understanding across a diverse range of design industry sectors means we provide services tailored to the specific needs of clients and candidates. We also pride ourselves on our up to date industry knowledge and market insights.

We offer a full portfolio of recruitment services in order to source contract, interim and permanent individuals as well as offering bespoke services such as Executive Search, Contract Management, Payroll Services and Recruitment Advertising.

Nurturing a close working relationship with our clients is very important to us as this is the key to building a strong and sustainable partnership.

Through engagement with both active and passive candidates we are able to provide our clients with shortlists of qualified and competent people from Graduate to Director level. We provide recruitment support throughout the UK, mainland Europe and Internationally.
